Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - DISCLOSURE

The council has completed its search relating to your request for information about employment support, which was received on 12 May 2017.

The council does hold information within the definition of your request.

Question 1
How much did your local authority area spend on employment support services for people with a learning disability in the following financial years, and how many people with a learning disability did this investment support in that period. 2010/2011 - 2015/2016
Answer 1
Information not held. We do not capture details specifically relating to people with learning disabilities.

Question 2
If the local authority does not hold the data for learning disability specifically, please instead provide the data of how much your local authority area spent on employment services for disabled people in the same years, and how many people did this investment support.
Answer 2

	Expenditure	People Supported
15/16	£339,881	79
14/15	£430,761	109
13/14	£274,691	113
12/13	£282,928	129
11/12	£263,018	129
10/11	£203,951	130

Question 3
If the local authority does not hold the data for learning disability or disability specifically, please instead provide the data of how much your local authority area spent on employment services for all unemployed people in the same years, and how many people did this investment support.
Answer 3

Most of the information that we provide in response to requests submitted under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and Environmental Information Regulations 2004 will be subject to copyright protection. In most cases the copyright will be owned by Cumbria County Council. However the copyright in other information may be owned by another person or organisation, as indicated on the information itself.

You are free to use any information supplied in this response for your own non-commercial research or private study purposes. The information may also be used for any other purpose allowed by a limitation or exception in copyright law, such as news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the information in analogue or digital form, including on the internet, will require the permission of the copyright owner. Where the copyright owner is the council you will need to make an application under the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005.

For information where the copyright is owned by another person or organisation you must apply to the owner to obtain their permission.

If you are dissatisfied with the way the council has responded to your request you can request an Internal Review. If you would like to request a Review please contact the Information Governance Team using the details at the top of this letter.
