

Festival of Learning activities
Area	Curriculum	Course title	Date	Time	Venue	Cost	Course overview	Tutors
Copeland	Languages	Memories of the First World War Poetry Workshop	11th June	10.00-12.00	Florence Mine, Egremont	0	Linking with the Egremont Red Poppy art workshops at Florence Mine, this session looks at seven poems which present the connection between war and nature. The aim is write your own poem fragment based on ideas generated or to present words, lines or the themes of published war poetry in a new and inspiring way.	Jo Lister
Copeland	Languages	English GCSE Literature.- Whats involved	11th June	13.30-15.30	Archive Centre, Whitehaven	0	A look at what's involved in this GCSE. We will spend up to 30 minutes looking at important moments in Macbeth , A Christmas Carol , An Inspector Calls , Lord of the Flies and one poem to give you an idea of what might lie ahead. Sample question papers are available for information and we will use fun and interesting approaches to each text.	Jo Lister
Copeland	Arts	Make Egremont Red Poppies!	11th June	13.30-15.00	Florence Mine, Egremont	0	Come along and create your own Egremont Poppy using art materials made from the ore of the town!	Di Mcghee
Copeland	Arts	Whitehaven Harbourside Photographic Walk	12th June	18.30-20.00	Whitehaven Harbour Bandstand	0	An opportunity to complete a photography walk using the local environment. You'll be able to chat to the tutor and ask questions about photographic subjects and try out some techniques in the landscape like composition skills and shallow depth of field all with the aim of improving your photography.	Dave Wilson
Copeland	Languages	Developing a reading group	14th June	14.00-15.30	Costa Coffee Market Square Whitehaven	0	Inspired by projects in England and Scotland, this relaxed session, with coffee or tea in hand, is a chance to listen to a Leader reading from a loved novel and short poem, before introducing a discussion on the themes and ideas. You can simply listen to the language flow, or join in and share the reading; you can meet others and discuss shared experiences across different ages and backgrounds.	Jo Lister
Copeland	ICT	ICT Activity morning: The library and ICT	15th June	09:45-12.00	Whitehaven Library	0	Accessing the libraries resources using ICT Magazines and Newspapers online, Using Borrowbox for E books, finding out about your ancestry and managing the documents you work with.	Grace Hall
Copeland	ICT	ICT activity afternoon: Ipads & tablets	15th June	13:30-15:30	Whitehaven Library	0	Getting the most out of your tablet/lpad: setting the tablet up, downloading apps, using the internet and personalisation.	Grace Hall

Copeland	Languages	Memories of the First World War: Poetry Workshop	18th June	10.00-12.00	Whitehaven Archive Centre	0	Linking with the Egremont Red Poppy art workshops at Florence Mine, this session looks at seven poems which present the connection between war and nature. The aim is write your own poem fragment based on ideas generated or to present words, lines or the themes of published war poetry in a new and inspiring way.	Jo Lister
Copeland	Arts	Make Egremont Red Poppies!	18th June	13.30-15.00	Florence Mine, Egremont	0	Come along and create your own Egremont Poppy using art materials made from the ore of the town!	Di McGhee
Copeland		Whitehaven Harbourside Photographic Walk for the experienced Photographer	21st June	18:30-20.00	Whitehaven Harbour Bandstand	0	An opportunity to complete a photography walk using the local environment. You'll be able to chat to the tutor and ask questions about photographic subjects and try out some techniques in the field such as multiple exposures and other techniques to improve your shots.	Dave Wilson
Copeland	Languages	Gothic Gore	18th June	18:00-20:00	St Benidicts Secondary School, Whitehaven	0	We dip our toes into the gory world of monsters and vampires from the pens of Mary Shelley, Bram Stoker and others, looking at some key moments from the novels and experiencing the whys, hows and wherefores of this popular genre. Film extracts and fun exploration activities help us understand character, background and theme.	Jo Lister
Copeland	Arts	Reading group taster	21st June	17:00-18:30	Whitehaven Library, Lowther St Whitehaven	0	A gentle approach to discovering new reading using a variety of mediums: theatre, book and film. All within a comfortable library setting with their full range of resources.	Kate Malkinson
Copeland	ICT	Coding for Parents	22nd June	13.30-15.00	Whitehaven Library	0	An opportunity for parents to get to grips with Coding software and how to support children develop the skills for school.	Jen Bulman