

The Great War

Cumbria Outdoors

“WANTS
YOU”

“Well researched and planned activities, very relevant to the subject and age/ability of the children”

Karen Roberts,
Braithwaite School

Volunteer to be part of a local Pals Battalion, by immersing yourself into the role of a new recruit during a two night residential at the Hawse End Centre

Travel back to the Great War
- learn local, British and world history by being recruited to a real Cumberland Battalion. Live the experiences of real Cumberlanders during the First World War.

Take your pupils back in time to surroundings and everyday activities authentic to the era

Educational and exciting time travel!

- ✕ Relive how soldiers survived in the trenches
- ✕ Discover the changing role of women during the Great War
- ✕ Rush to the rescue of torpedoed survivors
- ✕ Experience first-hand the role of the nurses in field hospitals
- ✕ Engage in night exercises with your Battalion
- ✕ Take part in evening activities of the period

For a costing and availability please contact Cumbria Outdoors tel: 01768 812280 or email: cumbriaoutdoors.enquiries@cumbria.gov.uk

"The WW1 food was fantastic - the beef stew and syrup pudding was a real treat"

Michaela Kemp,
Newbridge House