What is it?

This is an interactive forum created by the Young Perspective Board for young people aged 11-19

What will I be doing?

- Knife Collage: Knife crime what are your views about it.
- Signs and Signals: Knowing when trouble is about to start and responses to help keep yourself safe.
- Help build the Anti-Social behaviour Wall: Looking at actions and responses.

Only 30 places available.....

Hello, we are the LSCB Young Perspective Board we are all aged between 11-19 years old and our aim is to get the voice of young people in Cumbria and help create projects to keep young people safe. Come along and join us for a Fun, Interactive and Creative Workshop looking at what you think about crime.

When: Saturday 2 February 11am-3pm
