

CSCP Safeguarding Week
 'Learning from Practice'
 14 – 18 March 2022

Details of sessions taking place and how to book on the events

Date	Time	Session	Information	Booking details
Monday 14th	1-3pm	CSCP SAFEGUARDING WEEK – OPENING EVENT – LEARNING FROM PRACTICE Lesley Walker (CSCP Independent Scrutineer) Annie Hudson (Chair – Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel)	Learning from practice 'National Review Panel'. Conference to be opened by Cumbria's CSCP Independent Scrutineer Lesley Walker. Join us for the opening of Safeguarding Week 2022. This year's theme is learning from practice. The launch event will be opened by Lesley Walker, Cumbria Safeguarding Children's Partnership's Independent Scrutineer. We will then hear from Annie Hudson, Chair, Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel. The Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel are an independent panel commissioning reviews of serious child safeguarding cases. The panel have oversight of national and local reviews which gives them a unique insight into patterns of practice in child safeguarding. Annie Hudson will cover the role of the panel, focus on the National Review of non-accidental injury to babies under 1 year and some of the practice themes identified in the Panel's Annual Report. They will also consider how rapid reviews and local safeguarding practice reviews can best support effective learning and improvement.	Click here to book your place
Tuesday 15th	9.30-11am	SIGNS OF SAFETY (SOS) MULTI-AGENCY GROUP SUPERVISION – MAPPING David Carter (Signs of Safety Practice Lead)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This session is to support the use of supervision in the managing of risk when working with families The session will work through a signs of safety mapping exercise Apply the analysis categories so we can understand the unique circumstances of the family you are working with Develop questions we need to ask when planning our work with them Target audience – Designated Safeguarding Leads, line managers, supervisors for practitioners who are working with children and families	Click here to book your place

CSCP Safeguarding Week
 'Learning from Practice'
 14 – 18 March 2022

	10am-12pm	SAFEGUARDING IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS Lynn Berryman (Assistant Director, Children & Young People) Lesley Sanczuk (Senior Manager, Children & Young People) Denise Moore (Service Manager - Children and Families)	Using the experience of the child's journey in the safeguarding system we will be exploring the developments that have taken place since the launch of the Early Help Strategy The events will be a platform to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • highlight the developments since the launch of the EH strategy • provide an overview of the Early Help and Family Support Panels • focus on where the Safeguarding Hub is placed in the safeguarding system • reflect on when and how to use the Safeguarding Hub to best effect. 	Click here to book your place
	12.30-1.30pm	PARENTAL SUBSTANCE USE: LEARNING FROM REVIEWS Lucy Reed (Team Manager, Recovery Steps Cumbria)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Impact of parentals substance use • Key themes and risks • Overview of recent Safeguarding Practice Reviews and identified learning • Improving practice moving forward Target audience - Practitioners, line managers, designated safeguarding leads working with adults, children, and families	Click here to book your place
	2-3pm	HEARING THE VOICE OF THE CHILD Susan Hodkin (Partnership & Improvement Manager, Integration & Partnership) Tracey Thompson (Principal Children & Families Social Worker, Integration & Partnerships) Allie James (Ambassador for Care Leavers) Danielle Crellin (Ambassador for Care Leavers)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Empowering children to express their views and learning to listen to what children may be telling us about their experiences are crucially important issues in safeguarding practice. Whatever terminology is used, whether talking about the child's 'lived experience' or 'the voice of the child', the reality is that this is often a missing element in the cases that come to a serious case review or a practice review. • The session will explore why it is important to listen to children. Hear some of the young people's views about their experiences of talking to professionals. Share good practice and highlight tools that are effective for involving children and young people in your practice. 	Click here to book your place
	3.30-5pm	SAFER SLEEP Carla Clarke (Specialist Safeguarding Mid-wife, University Hospital of Morecambe Bay)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The briefing will focus on safer sleep advice and the vital role all practitioners have in sharing the message with families. There will be opportunity to reflect on existing knowledge and ensure all partner agencies are sharing the same advice consistently across Cumbria. Links to resources and advice for professionals will also be provided. 	Click here to book your place

CSCP Safeguarding Week

‘Learning from Practice’
14 – 18 March 2022

		Jane Heath (Named Mid-wife Safeguarding Children, University Hospital of Morecambe Bay)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There will also be a brief overview of ICON, a programme that provides information to parents and professionals about infant crying and how to cope. • This is an important public health message, in which we all have a part to play, and its impact on the safety of babies and young children cannot be underestimated. • The briefing is suitable for all practitioners who work with families with children under the age of 5.
	6-8pm	EARLY HELP TRAINING (SESSION A) Karen Ross (Early Help Officer) Steve Kemp (Early Help Officer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase their understanding of the Early Help – Signs of Wellbeing and Success assessment and process, including the SEND process. • Gain an understanding of the Early Help Bottom Lines, Young People’s Toolkit and Step up / Step Down Process. • Share learning from CSCP Safeguarding Groups around Information Sharing and understand how to improve their practice. 	Click here to book your place
Wednesday 16 th	10-11.30am	WORKING WITH NEGLECT – KEY INGREDIENTS FOR SUCCESS Lesley Walker (CSCP Independent Scrutineer)	The session will focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The impact of neglect • National and local Learning • Key barriers in identifying and assessing neglect • Key ingredients for success The session will involve a presentation by the Independent Scrutineer followed by an interactive discussion, including identifying what additional supports practitioners need to improve how they work with children and young people at risk of neglect.	Click here to book your place
	1-2pm	THE IMPACT OF PARENTAL MENTAL HEALTH Angela McAllister (Practice Educator, Safeguarding Team, North Cumbria Integrated Care) Declan Gibson (Practice Educator, Safeguarding Team, North Cumbria Integrated Care)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To raise awareness of the impact that parental mental health problems can have on the development, safety and welfare of children and on the parent’s or carer’s ability to meet the child’s needs. • To consider multi-agency responses to safeguarding children whose parents / carers have mental health problems. 	Click here to book your place
	2:15-3:45pm	SPOTTING THE EARLY SIGNS OF DOMESTIC ABUSE AND EXPLORING THE IMPACT OF	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be able to spot the early signs of domestic abuse • Explore the impact of domestic abuse on children and young people 	Click here to book your place

CSCP Safeguarding Week
 'Learning from Practice'
 14 – 18 March 2022

		DOMESTIC ABUSE ON CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE Steve Robson (Women Community Matters)
Thursday 17th	9.30-11am	SIGNS OF SAFETY (SOS) MULTI-AGENCY GROUP SUPERVISION – SOS HARM MATRIX David Carter (Signs of Safety Practice Lead)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How we use the Harm Matrix to begin to analyse the information we have in relation to safeguarding. • Using the Harm Matrix to understand what information we have, what information we don't have. • how we can plan the right questions to gather information. 	Click here to book your place
	2-3.30pm	GRADED CARE PROFILE 2 (GCP2) IN PRACTICE Samantha Kyriacou (Implementation Relationship Manager – leading on Graded Care Profile 2) Laura Bush (Senior Targeted Youth Support Officer and GCP2 trainers for Cumbria) Rachel Lapping (Social Worker and GCP2 trainers for Cumbria)	The session will cover GCP2 NSPCC recent research which has illustrated how the tool can support improvements in practice and positive changes for families.	Click here to book your place
	2-4pm	SAFEGUARDING IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS Lynn Berryman (Assistant Director, Children & Young People) Lesley Sanczuk (Senior Manager, Children & Young People) Denise Moore (Service Manager - Children and Families)	Using the experience of the child's journey in the safeguarding system we will be exploring the developments that have taken place since the launch of the Early Help strategy The events will be a platform to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • highlight the developments since the launch of the EH strategy • provide an overview of the Early Help and Family Support Panels • focus on where the Safeguarding Hub is placed in the safeguarding system • reflect on when and how to use the Safeguarding Hub to best effect. 	Click here to book your place
	6-8pm	EARLY HELP TRAINING (SESSION B) Karen Ross (Early Help Officer) Steve Kemp (Early Help Officer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand our roles within the multi-agency Team Around the Family (TAF). • Gain confidence in how to complete and/or contribute to the Early Help Signs of Wellbeing and success assessment. • Be able to identify sources of support to meet further training needs. 	Click here to book your place

CSCP Safeguarding Week

‘Learning from Practice’
14 – 18 March 2022

Friday 18th	9.30-11.30am	EARLY HELP TRAINING (SESSION A) Karen Ross (Early Help Officer) Steve Kemp (Early Help Officer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase their understanding of the Early Help – Signs of Wellbeing and Success assessment and process, including the SEND process. • Gain an understanding of the Early Help Bottom Lines, Young People’s Toolkit and Step up / Step Down Process. • Share learning from CSCP Safeguarding Groups around Information Sharing and understand how to improve their practice. 	Click here to book your place
	10am-12pm	CHILD EXPLOITATION AWARENESS TRAINING Sharon Tingey (CERAR Lead) James Yallop (Chair – Missing, Exploited and Trafficked Children Subgroup)	Audience - This training is for anyone who works with children, young people and their families. The training aims to increase awareness of child exploitation, how to spot the signs and how to report concerns and covers the Child Exploitation Risk Assessment and Review (CERAR) process Session content Having completed the training participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Know the different forms of Child Exploitation • Know how to spot the signs of child exploitation • Have an understanding of the impact on children and adults • Know how to report any concerns • Understand the Child Exploitation Risk Assessment and Review. 	Click here to book your place
	12.30-1.30pm	THINK FAMILY AND EARLY HELP FOR ADULT FOCUSED SERVICES Lesley Sanczuk (Senior Manager, Children & Young People) Steph Smithson (Programme Officer, Integration & Partnership)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding Think Family and Early Help • Opportunity for adult focused services on safeguarding children • What do we need to do? • Information sharing 	Click here to book your place
	2-3pm	PAUSE Pause is an innovative, dynamic and creative approach designed to address the needs of	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase their understanding of the Pause Programme. • Gain an understanding of Pause trauma informed practice and our relationship- based model. 	Click here to book your place

CSCP Safeguarding Week
 'Learning from Practice'
 14 – 18 March 2022

		women who have experienced, or are at risk of, repeat pregnancies that result in children being looked after by the local authority. Pause works with the women to break this cycle. Janice Ogilvy (County Practice Lead, PAUSE) Lesley Sanczuk (Senior Manager, Children & Young People) Sue Leong (Practice Co-ordinator, PAUSE)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning from our programme to help support improvement in practice. • Understand the impact of language.
1-3pm	EARLY HELP TRAINING (SESSION B) Karen Ross (Early Help Officer) Steve Kemp (Early Help Officer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand our roles within the multi-agency Team Around the Family (TAF). • Gain confidence in how to complete and/or contribute to the Early Help Signs of Wellbeing and success assessment. • Be able to identify sources of support to meet further training needs. 	Click here to book your place	