

Workshop ①

Discover the life story of Alfred Wainwright

In this 2 hour workshop children will work as real historical investigators examining the archive evidence to find out about what Alfred was like as an adult and a child and to debate the impact of his books.

This workshop uses a range primary sources from Wainwright's archive. Storytelling and drama are incorporated into the workshop to help bring the evidence to life in a fun and lively session.

- Gain skills in using historical evidence.
- Understand how archives provide evidence about Wainwright's life.
- Understand significant events in Wainwright's life and character traits.
- Understand the impact Wainwright's work had.
- Gather information about Wainwright to be used in biography project.
- Discover the techniques Wainwright used to create his books. (optional)

