WORKINGTON CENOTAPH-TRANSCRIPTION

LEST WE FORGET/1914-1918/1939-1945

High on each face carved into the Shap Granite are the coats of arms of Workington Borough (South), Cumberland County Council (North), the Border Regiment (West) and the Royal Artillery (East)

On each face are Bronzes by Alexander Carrock RSA- A soldier leaving his wife & child (South), A soldier carrying a wounded colleague (north), mining (east) and making steel rails (west).

It was unveiled in June in June 1928 by Mrs Catherine Henderson. She had lost 4 of her sons in the War and 2 other male relatives. The sons were Timperon (25) with the Border Regiment, George Norman (28) also Border Regiment, Robert (20) with the Welsh Borders and William (19) with the Border Regiment. She went on to lose her 5th son Enoch in WW2, but also had 4 daughters. Her brother William Stuart and his son, William, were also lost in WW1.

Plaque 1-

Wigton’s 1914-18 War/In the 1914-18 war almost every household in Wigton had a close/relative lost in the conflict./We had 26% killed or died from wounds, with a similar/percentage recieving very serious injuries./The hardest hit family in Wigton throughout the war was Mr/ & Mrs Thomas Dodd from Union Street, this family lost 4 sons./The first son to be lost was Private William Dodd, Border/Regiment./Followed by Private Thomas Dodd, Military Medal, South/Lancashire Regiment./The third son lost was Sergeant Albert Dodd, Border Regiment/The fourth son to be lost was Private Harry Dodd, Border/Regiment./Harry was the oldest son, he served in France in October 1914, and was wounded at Neuve Chapelle, after he recovered, he was/put to the Dardanelles (Gallipoli) and once again, after recuperating from illness, was sent back to France, and was killed there in October, 4 years to the month from the first time he was/wounded and only 1 month from the end of the war./Mr & Mrs Dodd had another son, Private Frank Dodd, he served/out the war in France.

In 1919, The Wigton Memorial Committee awarded 27 Gold/watches to the Wigton men who had gained Military Honours. One well known Wigton character was William Stewart Fell./Willy was one of the very few men to win 3 Military Medals, he died aged 87 in 1978.

“LEST WE FORGET!”/“LEST WE FORGET!”

When the WW1 memorial was moved to Waverton in 2007 it was realised that it was short of four names to be found on Waverton’s own memorial, see above. This was therefore commissioned to fill that gap, 88 years later.

THOMAS BROUGH/ARTHUR HALL/JOSEPH KIRKUP/DAVID TELFORD

It has since been established that the full name of Joseph Kirkup was Joseph Addison Kirkup.

IN MOST GRATEFUL MEMORY/OF THOSE WHO DIED FOR US/IN THE WORLD WAR/1939-1945

ERNEST GRAHAM/MARJORIE LITTLETON/IAN MUIRHEAD/ROBERT WILLIAM PATTINSON
Ian Muirhead is buried at Abbeytown & is on their memorial. He was awarded the DFC. One of his three sisters, Winsome, worked at Bletchley Park - a fact she never told her family until 1996. She has a flowering evergreen shrub named after her - Cassiope Muirhead. His grandfather was John Forsyth (1885 to 1934). He was an illustrator. Probably his best known work was the picture of a dead lion's carcass surrounded by a swarm of bees on tins of Tate & Lyle syrup and treacle.
