

Library Services for Older People in Cumbria

If you're an older person living in Cumbria, or have older friends or relatives, you may be interested in some of the things our libraries can provide. We can provide:

- Fiction and non-fiction books in large print
- Talking books in CD, MP3 and Playaway formats, free one click audio books
- DVDs and music CDs
- A home delivery service which is available to people who are unable to visit the library due to mobility problems or ill health and have no one who can go to the library on their behalf. Items are selected by library staff according to each customer's needs and are delivered by volunteers on the same day of the week once a month. This is a free service – if you would like to apply, please fill in the form at the bottom of this sheet and hand it into your local library. Someone from the library will contact you to discuss your needs
- Deliveries of books to individuals in residential homes and sheltered housing – please contact your local library for more details

We offer a welcoming and friendly environment

- Activities, talks, reading groups and ICT taster sessions in selected libraries – please ask in your local library or visit our website www.cumbria.gov.uk/libraries for more information
- Concessions are available on some of our charges – please ask in your local library or visit our website for a full list of our charges and how to qualify for concessions

Please tear off and hand in to your local library or contact us at library.support@cumbria.gov.uk
