

Mirehouse

Electoral Division Profile 2015

Overview of Electoral Division

Mirehouse is an electoral division within the district of Copeland. Named after the local housing estate of the same name, Mirehouse electoral division only covers the east side of Mirehouse and incorporates some of Hensingham and Whitehaven town. The west side of Mirehouse, which is separated by the railway line, is incorporated into the electoral division of Egremont and St Bees.

The main hospital for West Cumbria, the West Cumberland Hospital sits within the division. The hospital is a large employer for people within the division.

There are two primary schools in the division, but people have to travel outside of the division for secondary education, this is available at Whitehaven (Hensingham) or Egremont. Further education is provided by the schools 6th forms or at Lakes College West Cumbria, some 7 miles away.

County Council Electoral Divisions cover large spatial areas and so division averages can mask variation between communities within the division. Furthermore, beyond Census data, there is little statistical information available for Electoral Divisions. However, most statistical agencies produce data for Electoral Wards. Therefore, there is a very wide range of statistical information available for Electoral Wards. Furthermore, as Electoral Wards are generally smaller than Electoral Divisions, statistics at this level provide more insight into variations between communities.

The table below identifies which Electoral Wards are fully or partially within the boundaries of Mirehouse ED, and what proportion of Mirehouse ED’s population live within each ward:

Electoral Division	Wards in Electoral Division	% of Electoral Division's Population that fall within the Ward
Mirehouse ED	Harbour	26.4
Mirehouse ED	Hensingham	36.5
Mirehouse ED	Mirehouse	37.1

The Statistics provided within the Cumbria Atlas cover topics such as, but not limited to, population, housing, health, economy, poverty, ethnicity, language, and transport.
