

Copycat Call

Resources

Adult and child (three years upwards)

Learning opportunities

- Develop listening skills
- Develop voice control and singing skills
- Develop imagination
- Turn taking skills

Activity ideas

- Adult to say “Hello, it’s me” in a sing song manner, child to copy how the adult has said/sung “Hello, it’s me”.
- Adult to say “Hello, it’s me” using lots of different types of voices ...
 - Robotic, like a robot
 - Squeaky like a mouse
 - Spooky, like a ghost
 - Sadly, as if upset
 - Slowly, like a tortoise
 - Deeply, like a bear
- Adult to yodel the word “hello”, encourage the child to copy. Start by using a very simple yodel to begin with. Dependent upon the child’s age and ability make the activity more challenging by adding extra notes to the yodel.
- Once the game is familiar , encourage the child to lead and the adult to copy.

