

Practitioner Forum - Terms of Reference

The forum is for all practitioners working with children and families in the locality area.

1. An opportunity to share and disseminate information about services.
2. An opportunity to work together on specific issues.
3. A forum to discuss any information that may have an impact on children and families or the way practitioners engage and work with them.
4. Sharing skills and expertise to the benefit of children and families in the locality area
5. To enrich the practice of agencies attending by sharing different views and perspectives.
6. How we can work together and identify barriers that get in the way.
7. The organisation of the forum is a shared responsibility of all the agencies involved.
8. Working for the developmental needs of the locality.
9. To facilitate a 2 way communication between the LSCB and frontline practitioners.
10. To develop common practice across the county.

'We are working together to keep children and young people safe in Cumbria'